October 30, 2024 – Cotabato City - The Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) held its third annual SRs Day as part of the National Statistics Month celebration, recognizing the dedication and hard work of Statistical Researchers (SRs) who play a vital role in collecting essential data for the country. This special event was designed to honor and show appreciation for the SRs' commitment and tireless efforts in the field.

Held at the PSA Maguindanao Provincial Office, the event featured a variety of games, engaging activities, and heartfelt video presentations to celebrate the contributions of SRs. During the event, one of the Statistical Researchers shared her inspiring experiences and gratitude toward PSA Maguindanao for the opportunity to contribute to the agency's mission.

In his address, Naldo G. Pendaliday, MPA, Provincial Head of PSA Maguindanao, expressed his deep appreciation for the SRs' hard work and dedication. "Our Statistical Researchers are the backbone of our data collection efforts, and their commitment is crucial to the success of PSA's surveys. Today, we celebrate their invaluable role in bringing reliable data to our communities," Pendaliday shared.

PSA Maguindanao's SRs Day underscores the agency's commitment to recognizing every individual who contributes to the success of its surveys and data collection efforts. The celebration is a testament to PSA's gratitude for the dedication of its SRs and its aim to foster a supportive and appreciative environment.
